

Engage your students as they develop critical thinking skills with this free resource.

Understanding historical injustices, such as the internment of Ukrainians during World War One, will help create a generation of learners who will ensure the actions of the government promote justice for all.

Internees at Castle Mountain, Banff National Park
(Source: Glenbow Museum Archives)

With stunning visual, print, online, and media resources, you will be able to explore historical injustices perpetuated by the government of Canada in the name of national self-interest and security.

PIVOTAL VOICES

Recognizing an Historic Injustice:
Canada's First National Internment
Operations, 1914–1920

TC<sup>2</sup>
CRITICAL THINKING

○ PRIMARY
○ INTERMEDIATE ✓ MIDDLE
✓ SENIOR

AUTHORS Atul Bahl Ilan Danjoux Lindsay Gibson James Miles
SERIES EDITOR Roland Case EDITORS Atul Bahl Roland Case

Click on image to access your free resource

Ukrainian Canadian Congress
National Internment Committee

Resources provided by

Shevchenko Foundation, Canadian
WWI Internment Legacy Fund

